

bebop spoken here

For the last twelve years we've been updating the world about jazz in the north east of England and updating the north east of England about jazz in the world. WINNER of the Jazz Media Category in the 2018 Parliamentary Jazz Awards. Contact lanceliddle@gmail.com

4 2 9 5 8 0 3

How we rate (No. 3 UK)

And the winner is ...

New Comments etc...

June 28: Peter Jezard on Carole Clegg and Speakeasy (2017 post).

June 16/17: Ann/Lance on Telling it Like it is.

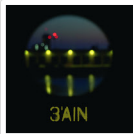

June 11: Joel Fass on Joel Fass.

June 9: John Whitehead on Info wanted on Tommy Henderson (2009 post).

June 8: Unknown Canadian sax

Wednesday, June 24, 2020

New album: 3'Ain - 3'Ain

The press release says it all ... Follow the try/buy link at the foot of the post - you may be pleasantly surprised! - Lance.

3'Ain is a brand new trio, in which Yamen Martini (trumpet) Otto Kint (upright bass) and Piet Maris (accordion) join forces

In 2015 Yamen moved from Syria to Belgium, where he met Piet: the two started working together on music for a theatre play in 2016.

Lateron, Piet invited Yamen to play and record as a guest musician with Jaune Toujours, as you can hear on their most recent album Europeana (2018). Summer of 2019, they asked Otto to join in on their musical exchange, starting up a new trio.

Their name is based on ع, which is the eighteenth letter of the Arabic alphabet, one of the most difficult vowels to pronounce for western people. As it is often indicated in Arabic chat - and SMS - conversation as 'ain, 3'Ain seemed an appropriate name for a trio playing contemporary jazz and world with oriental influences.

The threesome like to name their pieces after things they see around them while creating. Since they often work in Ostend, where Yamen lives, what they mostly see is boats arriving from all over the world. BZ-189 was one of those boats.

Try/buy.

Debut EP to be released in UK on June 26

How we rate (No. 35 globally).

Jazz North East

Current programme

Opus 4 Club January - July

