

La Nouvelle Harmonie Bruxelloise d'Accordeons
a band of accordions

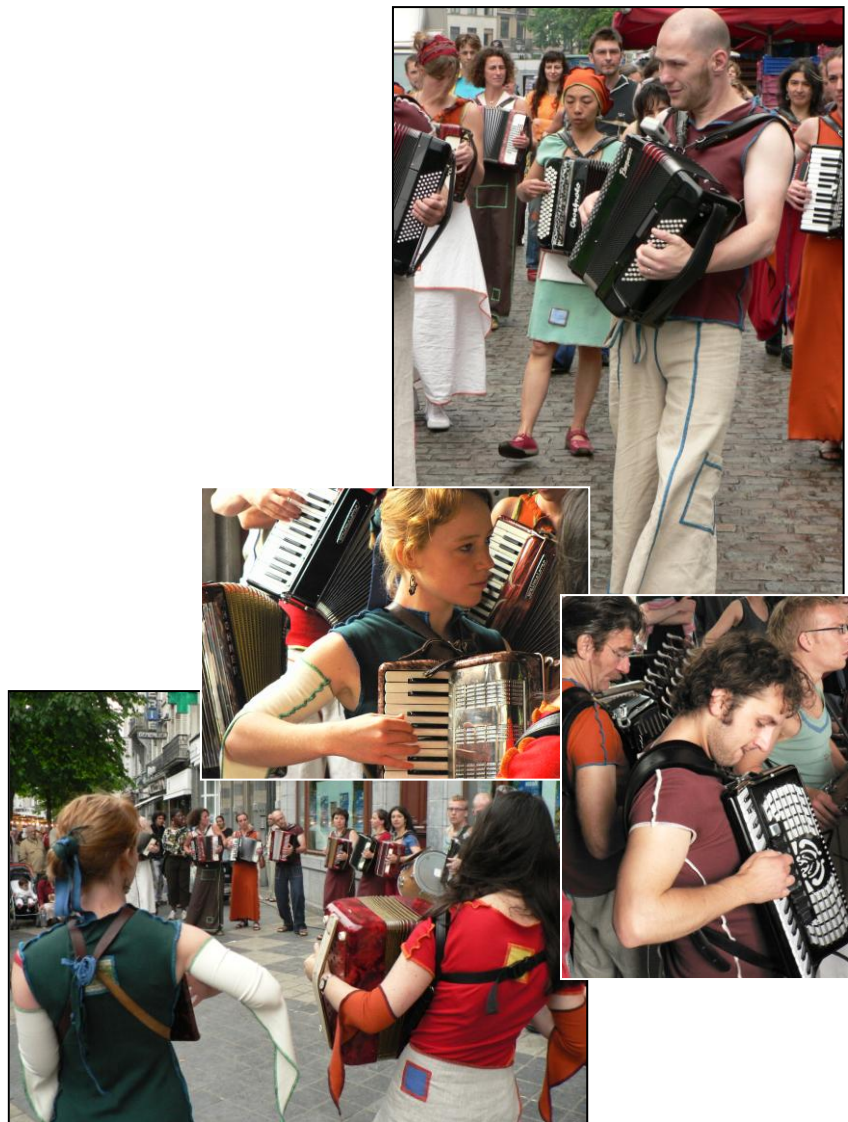

The Harmonie d'accordéon de Bruxelles was founded in 1912. Ninety years later, Piet Maris, his pupils and a few others created a new band of accordions.

After a few final rehearsals, they played in full force (with 33 participants) for the first time on the 25th of May, on the occasion of the Zinneke Parade, in Brussels.

After that you might have spotted them at the Dimanche sans Voitures (September 2002), the Street sharing Party (September 2002), the Festival happening in Hasselt (June 2003) or the street party Volders en fête in Saint-Gilles (mai 2003 & 2004).

Part of the Nouvelle Harmonie Bruxelloise d'Accordéons played on the recording of Più Lontano on the album Barricade by Jaune Toujours. As a result of that, they were invited to play with Jaune Toujours at some of their concerts: at the Halles de Schaerbeek in Brussels, at the Airbag Festival in Bruges and at the Opening Week of the new KVS in Brussels.

Memorable moments of 2006: the live recordings of the new album of Jaune Toujours at the Ancienne Belgique in Brussels, a concert at the Dranouter Festival and in Bollène (F).
